Our mission is to equip young leaders with superlative knowledge and adaptable social skills through contribution, updated technology and resources, enthusiasm, equality, conscientiousness, commitment, and quality assurance.

VISION & PURPOSE

- Adaptable social skills are required to help each individual accommodate with new experiences. This is achieved through accurately planned activities - both curricular and extra-curricular.
- All individuals must be treated based on equality. Members of staff, students, and parents must all feel and understand that they are receiving fair treatment in order to ensure their comfort which in return will contribute to a positive learning atmosphere.
- Superlative knowledge is translated into average to high scores, excelled academic performance, and adequate general knowledge.
- Updated technology and resources are essential to maintain high quality education that ensures that any student at ZSIS is ready to succeed in other schools and in colleges.
- Every child and adult must seek knowledge. We can only achieve this by inducing the love of learning into our students' minds. With challenges and rewards, activities and encouragements, students can reach a satisfactory level of enthusiasm.
- Quality assurance and conscientiousness go hand in hand as each individual works with loyalty, integrity, sincerity, consistency, and reliability.

Books are sent home only when there is homework. They should be kept neat at all times.

Only send FOLDER BAGS to school. Big bags and roller bags are not allowed inside the classroom. Folder bags are more than enough for our booklets.

The school carries out several Mother-Teacher-Meetings during the school year in order to discuss student behavior and performance.

In case there is a change in phone numbers, please inform the administration immediately. It is also important to inform the school in cases of child custody changes when necessary. Official papers will be discussed in this case.

We are here to learn more than just ABC and 123. We are here to learn to adapt, communicate, express, understand, and enjoy the process. Hands-On Learning is the way and hopefully you'll be able to see this development clearly throughout the year.
